Management Discussion & Analysis

Total revenue for the first quarter was US$48.2 million, an increase of 6.9% over the immediately preceding quarter (US$45.1 million) and 25.2% higher than the US$38.5 million recorded in the first quarter of the prior fiscal year. Subscription revenue represented 92% of total revenue and grew 27% year over year.

Gross margin improved to 72.0% (Q1 FY2025: 69.9%) as the company realised efficiencies from its migration to a multi-tenant cloud architecture. Operating profit rose to US$9.3 million, and profit before tax increased 57% year over year to US$9.6 million. The company generated US$11.4 million of operating cash flow during the quarter and ended the period with US$182 million in cash and short-term investments and no debt.

Remaining performance obligations (RPO) grew 31% year over year to US$246 million, providing strong forward visibility. The company added 74 net new customers with annual contract value above US$100,000 during the quarter.

Outlook

For the second quarter of fiscal year 2026, management expects revenue of between US$50.0 million and US$51.0 million, representing year-over-year growth of approximately 24%. For the full fiscal year 2026, the company reaffirms its guidance of revenue between US$205 million and US$209 million and a non-GAAP operating margin of 19% to 20%. Management remains confident in the durability of enterprise demand for the platform and expects continued margin expansion as the year progresses.
