Management Discussion & Analysis

Fourth-quarter net sales of ¥49,800 million increased 12.9% from ¥44,100 million in the same quarter of the previous fiscal year and rose 7.8% sequentially from ¥46,200 million in the third quarter. Ordinary profit for the quarter was ¥5,900 million, up 15.7% year on year. Demand for factory-automation robots in North America and continued recovery in semiconductor-handling systems drove the improvement.

For the full fiscal year, net sales were ¥182,400 million (FY2025: ¥168,900 million) and ordinary profit was ¥21,300 million (FY2025: ¥18,700 million). The operating margin for the full year improved to 10.9%. The weaker yen contributed approximately ¥3,100 million to full-year net sales.

Outlook for FY2027 (ending 31 March 2027)

For the fiscal year ending 31 March 2027, the company forecasts consolidated net sales of ¥195,000 million and ordinary profit of ¥23,000 million, assuming an exchange rate of ¥148 to the US dollar. The company plans to increase capital expenditure to expand its Nagoya production facility and expects continued strong demand in service robotics.
